WORLDS COLLIDE

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG™ MEGA MAN™

PART FOUR

PREVIOUSLY...

Sonic is the fastest, coolest hedgehog there is. He's spent his whole life traveling, helping his friends, and stopping Dr. Eggman's plans to conquer the world.

After a recent assault by the evil doppleganger called "Copy Robot", Sonic has entered into battle with Mega Man on his home world's Green Hill Zone!

Mega Man was first built as the helper robot, Rock. But when the jealous Dr. Wily unleashed his robots upon the world, Rock had himself modified for combat so he could fight to protect others.

In an attempt to even the odds, Mega Man tricked Sonic into plummeting the two heroes back to Mega Man's world!

Of course, the battle wouldn't be taking place at all if Dr's Eggman and Wily hadn't joined forces and rewritten reality with the Genesis wave! Aboard their flying fortress, the Wily Egg, they watch the blue heroes duke it out, all while their newest creations, the Roboticized Masters, gather the Chaos Emeralds for them!

The evil doctors continue their devious plans as the battle continues between the Blue Blur and Blue Bomber in Mega City! Does Sonic the Hedgehog stand a chance without a home-field advantage?

There's only one way to find out...

Dear Mega-Mail,
Mega Man issue 23! Blues! FINALLY! I'm glad the first meeting between the two brothers was as exciting as I expected!

Pretty sweet right? But keep your voice down, Rock still doesn't know it's his brother beneath the helmet! Of course, with Eggman and Wily messing with space/time, it seems like he DOES know...ok now my head hurts.

It's funny to see Auto doting on Rock so much. The Mega Man T-shirt was a nice touch also.

Auto is not only a great asset to Light Labs, but is also Rock's number one fanbot!

It was good to see Rock be so humble before his media blitz, but couldn't Roll have been just a tiny bit jealous?

Roll is a bright and sweet sister to Rock, and is always supportive of him. She can't be jealous because she's so proud of him!

But the real star of this issue was obviously Blues. I loved his eerie silence throughout most of the issue. I really like his clenched fist on page 4 as Dr. Wily is needling him. That one panel speaks volumes. He was just like in the video games! Blues shows up suddenly, tussles with Rock a little, and takes off without saying anything. Thanks for bringing one of my childhood memories to life! I can't wait to see how it all plays out!

Jonathan G.
Sent to MegaMan@ArchieComics.com

Thanks for writing in, Jonathan! Blues tends to let his actions do the talking. I think he made his point clear to Mega Man, but now what will he do? Keep reading to find out, and enjoy Blues' appearance as Proto Man during the Sonic and Mega Man Worlds Collide story!

Dear Mega-Mail,
I'm really enjoying the series a lot and have fun reading each issue. I'm looking forward to the "World's Collide" arc, seeing my two favorite game series together. The two blue heroes and their friends fighting side by side, I'm excited just thinking about it.

Hope you're enjoying the story so far! As you've read, Sonic and Mega Man have gotten off to a rocky start, but both are beginning to understand who the real threat is!

The new characters in the Mega Man comic are really cool too. I'm really liking Tempo, she has that type of charm to me, and Detective Gil as well. He look's very familiar to me. Possably from another Capcom game?

We love Tempo! She still has some adjusting to go through but keep an eye out for her in future stories! Gil is fresh from the comics with a great design from artist Ben Bates who drew (ha!) from several different inspirational sources!

...There is one more thing I want to ask. Is it just me, or is the bow in Roll's hair getting bigger? Well, I'd better stop rambling now. Looking forward to the next issue.

Jess V.
British Columbia, Canada
Sent to MegaMan@ArchieComics.com

Thanks for the letter, Jess! It is said that the bow has been strategically programmed by Dr. Light to change size in different weather conditions! (hey, he gave them robot hair - why not meteorologically-attuned accessories?)

That's all for this month, but remember to write in to MegaMan@ArchieComics.com for a chance to have your letters printed in upcoming issues of Mega Man! See ya back here next time for more MEGA-ACTION!
